SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

From the Gentleman's Magazine for January last.

TURKY.

THOUGH the Advantages gain'd over the Persians this Campaign are thought to be magnified, and the extraordinary Rejoicings made on that Account to have no solid Foundation, yet it is certain that Schah Nadir has not succeeded in his Designs to penetrate into the Turkish Empire, by the Way of Mousul or that of Kars, at both which Places he has been repulsed, and obliged to give over his Attacks.

RUSSIA.

The famous Dan Duc Ombo, Kan of the Calmucks, and Tributary of Russia, having renounced Idolatry, and embraced the Religion of the Greek Church, has sent three of his Sons to Moscow to be baptiz'd, and brought up after the Greek Manner.

The Austrian Party flatters itself with a powerful Assistance from hence in the Spring; on the other Hand the French and Prussians would induce the Czarina to observe a strict Neutrality with respect to the Commotions of Germany.

ITALY.

The King of Sardinia has sent General Pallavicini to the Republick of Genoa, with an Instrument, wherein he renounces all his Pretensions to Final, on Condition that the Genoese shall enter into Engagements with the two Crowns. This Offer, 'tis probable, will suspend the military Preparations of the Republick, and and is absolutely necessary to defeat the Designs of the Spaniards, who have, by their early Motions, made themselves already Masters of Oxeglia and several other Posts, in order to force a Way over the Mountains to join Count de Gages, who commands the Spanish and Neapolitan Army, and is, for that Purpose, preparing to force a Passage thro' Tuscany. This intended Conjunction of the two Armies cannot fail of taking Effect, if promoted by the Armament and Assistance of the Genoese, the Forces of Prince Lobkowitz, who is recalled, being too weak to prevent it.

GERMANY.

So great is the Ardour of the contending Powers in this Country, as not to suffer their Troops to lie idle in their Winter Quarters, particularly in Silesia, where the Prussians under the Command of the Prince of Anhalt Dessau, have obliged the Hungarian Insurgents to abandon Troppau, Jagerstorff, and other Places which they had taken, and to retire into Moravia. On the other Hand, the Austrians have taken the Castle of Glatz, the Capital of the Dutchy of that Name, bordering on Silesia, have fortified and strongly garritoned Stadt am hoff, a Place of great Importance for securing their Quarters along the Danube, and reduced under their Obedience, all the Upper Palatinate belonging to Bavaria, except Amberg, the Capital, which is vigorously attacked, and defended, the Possession of it being necessary to the Austrians for preserving their Communication with Ingoldstadt, the Garrison of which is but small, and not well provided.

On the other Side of the Country, the French ruin the People and Places wherever they settle their Quarters; for Instance, the City of Worms, where they have not only raised extravagant Contributions, &c. &c. &c. but sent for Vessels to carry away the Provisions when they depart; so that the Elector of Cologn had good Reason to tell M Maillebois's Aid de Camp, when he assur'd him the French would not treat his Subjects as Enemies, but Friends, that it was for that Reason he dreaded them most, for he had observ'd that their Friends suffered more by them than their Enemies.

The Austrians, who have made 1500 French and Imperialists Prisoners in the Town of Neumark, commanded by the Marquis de Crussol, and 300 French at Homan, continue to pallisade Stadt am hoff, and work every Day, on the Fortifications, employing therein a great Number of Peasants from the neighbouring Villages in the Upper Palatinate.

FRANCE.

It has been given out that our Court and its Allies will have next Season above 500,000 Men, near a Fifth more than their Adversaries. —— But the Intendants of several Provinces have represented, that it is impossible to compleat the Levies without taking married Men

The Marquis d'Argenson, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has wrote a Letter to the Duke of Newcastle, representing, that the Marshal Duke de Belle-Isle and his Brother, were arrested in a Post-house belonging to the King of Prussia, as having his Arms and Liveries in the Road from Cassel to Berlin, not by an Officer of Character, but by a Bailiff of a Village, in a violent Manner, without Regard to their Character and Dignity, and conducted like Criminals to Osterau; that such Outrages were not tolerated in any Country, nor in any Circumstance; that the King his Master did not doubt but his Britannick Majesty had sent Orders for punishing the said Bailiff, and that it was demanded and expected, that his Punishment should be exemplary and severe, as his Conduct has been contrary to the Rules of Justice and Humanity. That the King his Master is ignorant of the Motives of the Arrest, since they were attended only by their Domesticks —— If it be pretended that they have trespassed on the Territories of Hanover, and that in the Part which they crossed, there is no established Road, for which Reason they are to be regarded as Prisoners of War, the King has given Orders to pay their Ransom, according to the Cartel settled at Frankfort, July 18*th*, 1744, by which all Prisoners of War are to be set at Liberty in 15 Days, either by Way of Exchange or Ransom.

HOLLAND.

Hague, Jan 25 On the 20th Instant, the Earl of Chesterfield, Ambassador Extraordinary from the King of Great Britain to their High Mightinesses, arrived here, and has had several Conferences with the President of the Week, but 'tis believed that it will be more than a Month before he can have a compleat Answer. A new Quadruple Alliance is concluded between his Britannick Majesty, the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, the Queen of Hungary, and this State, and we are hiring a Body of Troops of the Swiss, so that every Things looks like War, tho' the French Minister has given Hints towards a Peace. The Canton of Berne has consented to the raising of seven Regiments for the Service of this Republick. A new Proclamation has been published, relating the mortality among Cattle, by which it is ordered, that all infected Beasts shall be buried as soon as dead; but Liberty is given of flaying them, if done directly; the selling or making any Use whatsoever of their Flesh or Tallow is strictly prohibited —— The Jews in Bohemia, who are computed at 46,000 Families, being ordered to quit that Kingdom, will be permitted to settle in the Territories of this Republick.

The COURT BARGAIN.

SAYS W—lp—e to C—tt—e, I tho't my Lord G—w—r,
You told us, intended to leave us no more.
Says C—tte, he has not. Says W—lp—e, you lie,
And you too, Sir John, have a Place by the bye;
I thought all your Boastings would end in a Farce:
Pray where's your Broadbottom? — Says C—tte, mine —e.

BOSTON,

BOSTON, May 27.

BY a Veſſel in 6 Days from Annapolis-Royal, we are informed, That that Fortreſs had been beſieged for about a Fortnight by a Body of upwards of a Thouſand French and Indians, who had dug Trenches and made Breaſtworks of Earth, to ſecure them from the Shot of the Fort. They had about 40 Shallops in the Baſon, with a great Number of Boats and Canoes, with which they had taken Capt. Poate in one of the Ordnance Schooners, which lately ſail'd from this Town for Annapolis Royal with Stores; and 'tis greatly fear'd, that 2 or 3 other Veſſels bound to the ſame Place are fallen into the Enemy's Hands, they not being arrived when the Veſſel came away by whom we have theſe Advices. And we are further inform'd, that a Party from the Fort being on Goat-Iſland, were ſurprized by about 70 Indians, and Two Engliſhmen and Five Cape Indians taken Priſoners.

Since our laſt, ſeveral Veſſels taken from the Enemy by our Cruizers on the Coaſt of the iſle Cape Breton are arriv'd.

On Saturday Capt. Donalow ſail'd for the Fleet before Louiſbourgh, and this Day Capt. Bennet ſails for the ſame Station.

Boſton, June 3. On Thurſday laſt arrived here Capt Smith in a Tranſport with Expreſſes from Lieutenant General Pepperill and Commodore Warren; by whom alſo came Letters from moſt of the Officers in the preſent Expedition againſt Cape-Breton, from which we learn, That ſince the laſt Account, our Forces have made their Approaches ſo near the Town of Louiſbourg, as to have compleated a Faſcine Battery of 42 and 18 Pounders within 200 Yards of the Weſtern Gate; with which they had ſo annoyed the Enemy's Works that they had beat down the Draw-bridge before the Gate, as alſo the Parapet of the Demi Lune Battery fronting that Way; and had got a conſiderable Breach there, ſo that they had a fair View into the Town where though they could obſerve the Enemy at Work in raiſing a Faſcine Battery within the Gate againſt them, they kept ſuch an inceſſant firing, and ſo ſucceſsfully, they doubted not of ſoon having ſuch a Breach as would render the Place eaſy of Aſſault —— We alſo learn, That they had on the North Side of the Harbour, fronting the Magazine and Demi Lune on that Side, raiſed another Faſcine Battery, and had got ſome 42 Pounders already there, and began to play them on the Town and Battery the Day that Capt. Smith came away, which being within a point blanck Shot muſt not only damage the ſaid Demi Lune Battery and Town on that Side, but much annoy the Enemy in the Works they are carrying on within to hinder our Approaches at the Weſtern Gate; ſo that the Town was now expoſed to five continual Fires, which had beat down many Houſes, with the Roofs, &c of the principal Ones, and in that Way done as much Damage as could be expected —— We farther have ſure Intelligence, That our People in reconnoitring the Harbours, Shores, &c. had diſcovered a Number of Cannon on the Light Houſe Side of the Harbour juſt below Low water Mark; which it is ſuppoſed were deſigned for a Battery to be built at the Light Houſe this Year; but upon Diſcovery of our Fleet tumbled down the Precipice into the Sea, to prevent their falling into our Hands; but that notwithſtanding they were expoſed to the Iſland Battery, our People had weighed and got up moſt of them; for the Security of which and the building a Faſcine Battery there, there was a proper Detachment poſted; but to prevent the Recovery of thoſe Cannon, the Enemy had ſallied out from the Town, and about 100 of them landed in Boats on the Light Houſe Point, who were no ſooner on ſhore but a Party of Ours got betwixt them and their Boats, ſo that they flew immediately to the Woods for ſhelter, their Return to the Town being impoſſible; one of thoſe was taken Priſoner, who proved to be a Seaman belonging to a Snow from France, that got into the Harbour in a Fog, undiſcovered by our Cruizers, from whom they got Intelligence, That an Armament was coming from Breſt, to reinforce that Place and proceed to Annapolis, conſiſting of Three Men of War, one of 72 Guns and two of 56, and two Company's Ships of 36 Guns each —— And we have farther certain Accounts, That on the 18th ult. the Mermaid Man of War, of 40 Guns, Captain Douglaſs, and the Shirley Galley Snow, of 20 Guns, Capt Rouſe, one of our Cruizers, fell in with a French Man of War, and engag'd her, the former Yard Arm and Yard Arm; and the latter being too ſmall to lay along ſide, and going well, pelted her a ſtern, or a head, or on the Quarters as he could beſt; and as ſhe prov'd a Ship of Force, they knowing how the Commodore bore of them, fought and ſailed 'till they fell in with the Commodore and Fleet; but Night coming on it was 9 o'Clock before the Commodore got along ſide near enough to engage, when after 2 or 3 Broadſides ſhe ſtruck and ask'd for Quarter, and was the next Day ſecured: She is called Le Vigilante, and proves a fine new Ship, having never been at Sea before, had 64 Guns and 560 Men, was commanded by the Marquis De Maſſon fort, and had been but 34 Days out of Breſt; the Command of her is now given to Capt. Douglaſs, who ſo bravely engag'd her in the Mermaid, and the Command of the Mermaid to Mr. Montagues It is yet unknown of what Conſequence the Caption of this Ship may be, as ſhe proves to be laden with military Stores of all ſorts, for carrying on a Siege, reinforcing their Fortifications, and ſupplying the Indians, amongſt which are a great Number of heavy Cannon, with their Materials; beſides ſmall Arms, Bomb Shells, Cohorns, &c. even to an Indian Hatchet, and, excluſive of the Ship's Proviſion, 1000 half Barrels of Gun Powder; and as there is a good Look out for the Remainder of thoſe Ships, it is not doubted but that they alſo will fall into our Hands. — Le Vigilante in her Paſſage from France had taken two large Ships from South Carolina, laden with Rice, for London, which were alſo expected ſoon after them, they having parted with them but a few Days After this Ship was taken, ſhe was, with a great Number of Flags of all ſorts, in Proceſſion, towed a croſs the Entrance of the Harbour by the Mermaid, in View of the Town, into Chapeau rouge Bay; and as the Enemy's Dependance muſt have been on the Arrival of theſe Ships, ſeeing their Commodore taken muſt intimidate them much: There is on board a Perſon of Diſtinction, but whether he is the new Governor, or Monſ Duvivier in Diſguiſe, was not diſcovered when Captain Smith came away —— We have farther Intelligence, that the Princeſs Mary, Capt. Edwards, who went from hence had join'd the Fleet the Day of Capt. Smith's Departure, and that he alſo met with the Hector, Capt. Cornwall, off Fourchette about 4 Leagues from Chappeau rouge the next Day, bound down along with a fair Wind; ſo that the Fleet now conſiſts of the Superbe, and Princeſs Mary, of 60 Guns, the Mermaid, Launceſton, Eltham, and Hector, of 40, the Bien Aimé, of 24 and Three Ships and Three Snows, of 20 Guns each, one Brigantine of 16, and the Connecticut and Rhode Iſland Colony Sloops, of 14 each, all well mann'd and fitted, which it is not ſuppoſed any Force can come from France to equal this Year: Beſides we hear, the Commodore expects 3 other Ships of War to join him from Newfoundland; which with the Ships expected to Annapolis, Piſcataqua, &c with Stores, it's not doubted will protect our Northern Colonies from any Invaſion this Year — We learn further, that the Fluxes which had got amongſt our People were over, — That the Army in general were in good Health, and high Spirits, — That ſince the laſt Account, we had loſt but 2 Men killed at one of our Batteries, and one wounded with the Loſs of a Leg; — and that the Lieutenant General and Commodore had determined upon Meaſures of proſecuting a more vigorous Attack —— We likewiſe hear, that La Vigilante Man of War has on board all the Cloathing and Three Years Pay for the Gariſons at Cape-Breton and Canada.

A few Days ſince, a Billander well mann'd and arm'd was ſent by this Government to the Relief of Annapolis Royal, beſieg'd by the French and Indians; but Yeſterday we had the agreeable News, by a Schooner from that Place, that the Enemy had raiſed the Siege and were drawn off. We are likewiſe informed, That Capt. Baſtide, his Majeſty's chief Erginier in Nova Scotia, with ſome Gunners, were gone from Annapolis-Royal, to the Army before Lewisbourg.

Laſt Friday an Order was paſſed by the General Aſſembly for raiſing 400 more Soldiers in this Province, to reinforce our Army at Cape Breton. Some Companies are alſo raiſing for the ſame purpoſe, by the Province of New Hampſhire, and the Colonies of Connecticut and Rhode Iſland.

We have Advice from Antigua, that the Comet Bomb was taking in her Mortars & Shells in great Haſte, on the 9th of April laſt, in order to go upon ſome Expedition.

CHARLES-TOWN, July 6.

On Monday laſt arrived here, with his Lady, JOHN LLOYD, Eſq; whom His Majeſty hath lately been pleas'd to appoint Governor of Caſtle Johnſon: On Thurſday his Commiſſion was read in the ſaid Caſtle, followed by a Diſcharge of the Artillery. Died Nov. 24 1758.
